DETAILED ACTION

An amendment was received and entered on 1/25/07. Applicant's election with traverse of group 16, claim 41, drawn to a pharmaceutical formulation comprising a Nell-1 protein, is acknowledged. Traversal is on the grounds that claim 41, and several other claims, are divided into more than one group. Applicant asserts that a species election requirement should be imposed instead of a group restriction. This is unpersuasive because Applicant has provided no reason as to why, if a claim recites more than one patentably distinct invention, a species election requirement should be made instead of a group restriction. The restriction requirement of 1/9/2007 made clear that the technical feature linking the claimed inventions is not a special technical feature under PCT Rule 13.2 because the technical feature linking the claimed inventions is anticipated by the prior art (Ting et al (WO 01/24821). For these reasons the requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claims 1-40 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 1/25/07.

Specification

The specification is objected to because the brief description of Fig. 6 addresses panels a-f, but does not address panel g. Insertion of (Figure 6G) after the first period in line 28 of page 14 is suggested.

Compliance with Sequence Rules

This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR 1.821(a)(1) and (a)(2). However, this application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.821 through 1.825 for the following reason(s). Applicant's attention is directed to the final rule making notice published at 55 FR 18230 (May 1, 1990), and 1114 OG 29 (May 15, 1990). If the effective filing date is on or after July 1, 1998, see the final rulemaking notice published at 63 FR 29620 (June 1, 1998) and 1211 OG 82 (June 23, 1998). The specification at pages 54-56 discloses oligonucleotides identified as SEQ ID NOS: 1-19. However, the Sequence Listing filed 3/11/05, lists only two sequences, and the sequence listed as SEQ ID NO:2 is not the same as the SEQ ID NO:2 disclosed in the specification at page 54, lines 22 and 23. Applicant must provide:

A substitute computer readable form (CRF) copy of the "Sequence Listing" properly identifying all disclosed sequences.

A substitute paper copy of the "Sequence Listing", as well as an amendment directing its entry into the specification.

A statement that the content of the paper and computer readable copies are the same and, where applicable, include no new matter, as required by 37 C.F.R. 1.821(e) or 1.821(f) or 1.821(g) or 1.825(b) or 1.825(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 41 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 41 is drawn to a composition comprising a Nell-1 protein. The specification as filed discloses a single example of a Nell-1 nucleic acid isolated from homo sapiens. No alleles of this nucleic acid are disclosed, no homologs or orthologs from any other species are disclosed, and no amino acid sequence of any Nell-1 protein is disclosed. While one of skill in the art can determine the Nell-1 amino acid sequence from the nucleic acid sequence of the disclosed allele, this would not lead one to the amino acid sequence of any other Nell-1 allele, homologue, or ortholog. Thus one of skill in the art could not conclude that Applicant was in possession of the claimed genus embracing Nell-1 polypeptides from any source at the time the invention was filed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 41 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ting (WO 01/24821).

Ting taught a composition comprising a pharmaceutically acceptable excipient and a Nell-1 protein. See page 36, lines 9-20.

Thus Ting anticipates the claim.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.
